UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

A.S., an individual,
Plaintiffs,
v.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT et al,
Defendants.

CASE NO.: 5:24-cv-00640-SSS-SP
DISCOVERY MATTER
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. INTRODUCTION

A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

This action is likely to involve medical records, sensitive and confidential documents related to police reporting and practices, documents containing private information from third parties, police investigation procedures and tactics, and other confidential and private information for which special protection from public

1 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is 2 warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of,
3 among other things, confidential personal information of non-parties, private medical 4 and autopsy records, internal police reviews and procedures, and other confidential
5 and sensitive information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may 6 be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal statutes,
7 court rules, case decisions, or common law. Defendants contend that there is good 8 cause for a protective order to maintain the confidentiality of peace officer personnel
9 records. They emphasize that releasing these records, which include internal analyses 10 and legal communications, could hinder law enforcement investigations.

11 Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt 12 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately 13 protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the 14 parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and 15 in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve 16 the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter.
17 It is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for 18 tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it
19 has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause 20 why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

21 2. DEFINITIONS

22 2.1 Action: this pending federal lawsuit.

23 2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 24 information or items under this Order.

25 2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how 26 it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection
27 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in the Good 28 Cause Statement.

1       2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their 2 support staff).

3       2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 4 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

6       2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 7 the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including,
8 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 9 generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

10       2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter
11 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as 12 an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

13       2.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action.
14 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 15 counsel.

16       2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 17 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

18       2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to 19 this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and have 20 appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which 21 has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

22       2.11 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 23 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 24 support staffs).

25       2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 26 Discovery Material in this Action.

27       2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 28 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above) but also any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

Any use of Protected Material at trial will be governed by the orders of the trial judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

4. DURATION

Once a case proceeds to trial, all of the information that was designated as confidential or maintained pursuant to this protective order used or introduced as an exhibit at trial becomes public and will be presumptively available to all members of the public, including the press, unless compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings to proceed otherwise are made to the trial judge in advance of the trial. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1180-81 (9th Cir. 2006) (distinguishing “good cause” showing for sealing documents produced in discovery from “compelling reasons” standard when merits-related documents are part of court record). Accordingly, the terms of this protective order do not extend beyond the commencement of the trial

5. DESIGNATION OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1. Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this

1 Stipulation and its associated Order must take care to limit any such designation to 2 specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. A Designating Party
3 must take care to designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, 4 items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the 5 material, documents, items or communications for which protection is not warranted
6 are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

7 Mass, indiscriminate, or routine designations are prohibited. Designations that 8 are shown to be clearly unjustified, or that have been made for an improper purpose
9 (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process, or to impose 10 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties), expose the Designating Party to 11 sanctions.

12 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it
13 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 14 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

15 5.2. Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 16 this Order, or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, material that qualifies for protection
17 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 18 produced.

19 Designation in conformity with this Order requires the following:

20 (a) for information in documentary form (apart from transcripts of 21 depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings, and regardless of whether produced
22 in hardcopy or electronic form), that the Producing Party affix the legend
23 “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion 24 or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also 25 must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings 26 in the margins). Whenever possible, the “CONFIDENTIAL legend” should be placed 27 in the margins of the designated document. The “CONFIDENTIAL legend” should 28 not obscure the contents of the document or material. (See Local Rule 11-3.1.)

1 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for 2 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 3 indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection 4 and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 5 deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents
6 it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents,
7 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing 8 the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL”
9 legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of 10 the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 11 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 12 margins).

13 (b) for testimony given in depositions, the Designating Party must identify 14 the Disclosure or Discovery Material that is protected on the record, before the close 15 of the deposition..

16 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary, and for 17 any other tangible items, the Producing Party must affix in a prominent place on the 18 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the 19 legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only portions of the information or item warrant
20 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected
21 portions, specifying the material as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

22 5.3. Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 23 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 24 Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for that material. On 25 timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts
26 to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

27 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS.

28 6.1. Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a

1 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's
2 Scheduling Order.

3 6.2. Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute
4 resolution process under Local Rule 37.1 et seq.

5 6.3. The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on 6 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose
7 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 8 expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived 9 or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall continue to afford the 10 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing 11 Party's designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

12 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL.

13 7.1. Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 14 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a non-party in connection with this case
15 only for preparing, prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation – up 16 to and including final disposition of the above-entitled action – and not for any other 17 purpose, including any other litigation or dispute outside the scope of this action.
18 Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under 19 the conditions described in this Stipulation and its associated Order. When the above 20 entitled litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the 21 provisions of section 13, below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

22 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 23 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons
24 authorized under this Stipulation and its Order.

25 7.2. Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless 26 otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a
27 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL
28 only to the following people:

1 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of record in this action, as well
2 as employees of such Counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the 3 information for this Action;

4 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 5 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

6 (c) Experts (as defined in this Stipulation and Order) of the Receiving Party
7 to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed
8 the "Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

9 (d) the Court and its personnel;

10 (e) court reporters and their staff;

11 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 12 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 13 signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

14 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 15 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

16 (h) during their depositions, witnesses and attorneys for witnesses to whom 17 disclosure is reasonably necessary, provided that the deposing party requests that the 18 witness sign the form attached as Exhibit A hereto and the witnesses will not be 19 permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the form, unless 20 otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the Court. Pages of 21 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected 22 Material may be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to 23 anyone except as permitted under this Order; and

24 (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, 25 mutually agreed on by any of the Parties engaged in settlement discussions or 26 appointed by the Court.

27

1 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED
2 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION.

3 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation 4 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 5 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

6 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party, preferably (though not 7 necessarily) by facsimile or electronic mail. Such notification shall include a copy of 8 the subpoena or court order at issue;

9 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 10 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena
11 or order is subject to this Stipulation and its Protective Order. Such notification shall 12 include a copy of this Stipulation and its Protective Order; and

13 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 14 by all sides in any such situation, while adhering to the terms of this Stipulation and 15 its Order.

16 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 17 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action
18 as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena 19 or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 20 Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court 21 of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 22 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful 23 directive from another court.

24 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 25 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

26 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-27 Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 28 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the

1 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 2 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

3 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 4 produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 5 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's 6 confidential information, then the Party must:

7 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-party
8 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a 9 confidentiality agreement with a Nonparty;

10 (2) promptly provide the Non-party with a copy of this Order, the 11 relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific 12 description of the information requested; and

13 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 14 Non-Party, if requested.

15 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 21
16 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may 17 produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request.
18 If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce 19 any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality
20 agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a court
21 order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 22 protection in this court of its Protected Material.

23 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL.

24 If a Receiving Party learns that by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
25 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 26 Order, the Receiving Party must immediately notify the Designating Party in writing
27 of the unauthorized disclosures, use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies
28 of the Protected Material, inform the person or people to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of the terms of this Order, and ask that person or people to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL.

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

12. MISCELLANEOUS.

12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

13. FINAL DISPOSITION.

After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60-day deadline that identifies (by category, when appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings; motion papers; trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts; legal memoranda; correspondence; deposition and trial exhibits; expert reports; attorney work product; and consultant and expert work product even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

14. SANCTIONS.

Any willful violation of this Order may be punished by civil or criminal contempt, financial or evidentiary sanctions, reference to disciplinary authorities, or other appropriate action at the discretion of the Court.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

FOR GOOD CAUSE SHOWN, IT IS SO ORDERED.
